

Attending: Gary Smith (chair), Geri Bowen, Steve Halsted, Marty Lamb, Jane Smith

NEXT MEETING: TBD after we hear from Heather about "VBS/3 all-generations events" plans. JCC likes meeting at dinner time.

PROJECT: Green Tea Breakfast on Transportation

Responsible: JCC

Date: Saturday, May 8, 9:00-11:00 (arrive at 8:45 for breakfast)

Notes: Positive response from Alice Loyd and Marion Hartman; general interest from Raleigh Friends "Eco Friends". Will proceed with event on a smaller scale, shifting emphasis from building state-wide support to learning about the issue (especially rural/urban).

TO DO:

Marty will call Marsha to confirm they are coming.

Gary will update the list and send a "we're still on" reminder.

See previous minutes for assignments for the day.

PROJECT: All Things Congo: Climate Change

Responsible: JCC

Date: postponed

Notes: Event postponed due to illness in Sam Mozely's family.

TO DO:

Jane will note postponement to All Things Congo list, bulletin boards, CUCC communication media, CUCC calendar.

ALL will sign card for Sam.

PROJECT: City bus stop

Responsible: JCC

Date: ongoing

TO DO:

Gary will continue to pursue information with appropriate agencies.

PROJECT: VBS

Responsible: Christian Education

Date: three monthly events for all generations this summer

Notes: Heather reports that they are considering a sing-a-long/camping on the grounds event, a games event, and a third event. Steve is considering a folk music Sunday with a focus on creation; he will discuss this with Deacons.

PROJECT: Operation Fan Relief

Responsible: Community Outreach Ministry

Date: on-going

Notes: Geri is in discussion with Helping Hand Mission. If timing works, perhaps fans could be collected during Pentecost worship (wind symbol for Spirit).

TO DO:

Geri will get detailed information from Sylvia Wiggins and keep JCC informed.

PROJECT: Method Child Development Center grounds workday

Responsible: Community Outreach Ministry

Date: May 2, 9-noon

Notes: Workday will focus on play yard needs.
